

MOUNTAIN PLAINS ADULT EDUCATION ASSOCIATION (MPAEA) & COLORADO ADULT EDUCATION PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATION (CAEPA)

MILE HIGH RENDEZVOUS 2006
APRIL 26-29, 2006 ♦ ADAMS MARK HOTEL
DENVER, COLORADO

CALL FOR PRESENTATIONS

MPAEA and CAEPA invite you to share your expertise with conference participants. The purpose of the Mile High Rendezvous is to promote professional growth, foster personal and program development, and contribute to program improvement. Conference strands include but are not limited to:

ABE Best Practices	ESOL Best Practices
GED Best Practices	Technology
Family & Intergenerational Literacy	Correctional Education
Special Needs and Learning Disabilities	Higher Education
21 st Century	Program Administration
On-going Professional Development	Adult Education Advocacy
Leadership	Adult Learner Leadership

The selection committee will schedule presentations based on:

- Incorporation of RESEARCH-BASED practices
- RELEVANCE to conference strands
- Potential to ATTRACT and MOTIVATE conference participants
- Originality and creativity

Sessions will be one hour in length. Double sessions lasting two hours will be considered. Team or collaborative presentations are encouraged.

A limited number of pre-conference sessions will also be offered on Wednesday, April 26. These sessions will be three hours in length. Please see page 3 of the Call for Presentations form for the pre-conference session application.

MPAEA and CAEPA do not offer an honorarium or pay expenses for presenters.

Proposals received after Tuesday, November 1, 2005, may not be considered.
